A fragrance-film concept for Wild Self Perfume

Hi there,

I was looking at Wild Self Perfume and liked this detail: your personal expressive Australian perfume brand. That kind of identity gives you something strong to build a commercial around—more than a product shot, a world people can remember.

I make polished short-form fragrance commercials for $80, including concept, video, audio, captions, editing, and final delivery, typically next day depending on the project. Here's a VELARA sample to show the finish: https://drive.google.com/file/d/1zxqXmvBf2T7qSobQ-EqvHG6rfRiRUk2r/view?usp=sharing

It's only an example—the real piece would be custom to Wild Self Perfume, its hero scent, and the mood you want customers to feel. If useful, the founder/owner can also appear as a cameo using one clear photo.

If you'd like, I can show you what I'd do specifically for Wild Self Perfume.

Absolutely, do you have any particular concept or direction in mind for the black one? I'd love to hear what you're envisioning and see how we can turn it into something really striking.

I wish to deliver beyond your expectations

Marnie!

Shall I send the proposal over to you? It will clearly outline what we need from you and exactly what I'll deliver, so we're both on the same page. That should make everything straightforward and easy for us to move forward.

Very nice I love it.

Live the culture at the start too haha.

Autumn eve is one of my favourites. How much per video

Warm regards Marnie

Glad you loved it

Pricing-wise, I'm okay with $50 per video if you are. I'll send over a detailed proposal if you'd like to negotiate anything, we can set terms accordingly that's totally fine too.

We can also set up weekly check-ins and run the campaign across multiple platforms if you're interested. Let me know what you think!

Best,

Ali

Marnie!

Whenever you're ready for Autumn Eve or the next one, just say the word.

Best,
Ali
